

AFTER SCHOOL CONVERSATION STARTERS IDEAS

for Tweens and Teens

- ♥ What was your favourite class today? What happened? What were you learning about?
- ♥ Which class are you liking the best at the moment? Which one are you learning the most in?
- ♥ Did you get to sit with any of your buddies today? How did that go? How are your buddies doing?
- ♥ What did you get up to at break time? Who did you hang out with today?
- ♥ Did anyone do anything really funny today? Did anything funny happen?
- ♥ Which class are you finding the hardest at the moment? Is there anything we can talk about to help?
- ♥ What was your most favourite part of the day? Why? What was your least favourite part of the day? Why?
- ♥ Who were you most excited to see today? How did it go?
- ♥ Is there anything you had a hard time with today?
- ♥ Is there anything you learned today that I would think is neat?

Success Tips:

Don't try to talk as soon as you collect them from school. Allow chill out time.

Make sure they have afternoon tea/snack.

Try talking while walking or playing together.

Watch for nonverbals to check when they've had enough talking.

Use these for inspiration, not as a checklist of questions.

Remember, sometimes less is more - think quality over quantity.
